

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

THE MILL...From the Anti-Slavery Standard.

IT IS A LOWLY,
HUSHED with head sunlight lies the hill,
And, ministering the long day's dose,
The cedar shadow, slow and still,
Creeps o'er its dial of gray moss.
With noon comes birth; full the valley's cup,
The sun's leaves are scarce astir;
Only the little mill sends burr.
It bays, never ceasing burr.

The sober Dream, which awoke yesterday from Honduras, brought from that place three men, said to be Spaniards, to take their trial at the ensuing Court. Assembling for the murder, as we are informed, of one of our countrymen who was killed in a cause which was about three months back from Boston. The settlement not having a Court of Vice Admiralty, the superintendent chartered the Drama to convey the prisoners here, and they were placed under the charge of Serg. Blake, of the Royal Artillery. They were placed in irons, and were sent to New York after the schooner anchored in this harbor they were brought ashore and lodged in the jail. Two witnesses present at the dreadful scene have also come up in the vessel, to give evidence at the trial.
